

CMFRI wins two awards

KOCHI: The Central Marine Fisheries Research Institute (CMFRI) has won two national-level awards instituted by the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR).

It won the best annual report award (2020) in the category of ICAR large institutes while Anusree M, a PhD scholar at CMFRI, bagged the Jawaharlal Nehru Award for PG outstanding doctoral thesis research in agricultural and allied sciences for 2021.

The CMFRI annual report contains key information on the institute's research activities and outputs in a year.

This is the second time in seven years that the annual report has won this award. CMFRI won this award among 114 institutes in India under ICAR.

The institute had won the Sardar Patel outstanding ICAR institutions award, the highest award of the ICAR, in 2020.
