

New areas in oyster farming

Trainees from cherai visiting oyster farms in moothakunnam

As a new farming venture, two groups of Kudumbashree members from Cherai, one of the main tourist spot in Kerala have now started oyster farming. To initiate the farming activities, Molluscan Fisheries Division conducted two training programmes (25 trainees) and the team members visited oyster farms and depuration facility in Moothakunnam during December 2012.