

Landing of larger sciaenids by gill netters at Veraval

There was significant landing of larger sciaenids Protonibea diacanthus (12 t) and Otolithoides biauritus (9.2 t) by gill netters in the month of April and May 2008. The catch of 10.2 t of ghol recorded in the month of May is the highest catch recorded by gillnetters in a particular month at Veraval.

(Veraval Regional Centre)