CMFRI - A Profile

CENTRAL MARINE FISHERIES RESEARCH INSTITUTE

History

The Central Marine Fisheries Research Institute (CMFRI) was established on 3rd February 1947 by the Government of India under the Ministry of Food and Agriculture with temporary Headquarters at Madras, which was shifted to Mandapam Camp in 1949 and to Cochin in 1971. In 1967 the administrative control of the Institute was transferred to the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR).

Mandate

- »» To monitor the exploited and assess the underexploited marine fisheries resources of the Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ)
- »» To understand the fluctuations in abundance of marine fisheries resources in relation to change in the environment
- »» To develop suitable mariculture technologies for finfish, shellfish and other culturable organisms in open seas to supplement capture fishery production
- »» To act as a repository of information on marine fishery resources with a systematic database
- »» To conduct transfer of technology, post-graduate and specialised training, education and extension-education programmes
- »» To provide consultancy services

Scientific Divisions

Multidisciplinary research efforts in capture and culture fisheries are facilitated through ten Divisions: Fisheries Resources Assessment, Pelagic Fisheries, Demersal Fisheries, Crustacean Fisheries, Molluscan Fisheries, Fishery Environment Management, Marine Bio-Technology, Socio-Economic Evaluation Technology Transfer, Marine Biodiversity and Mariculture.

Subordinate establishments

To effectively carry out the tasks, the Institute has established Regional Centres at Mandapam Camp, Visakhapatnam and Veraval, Research Centres at

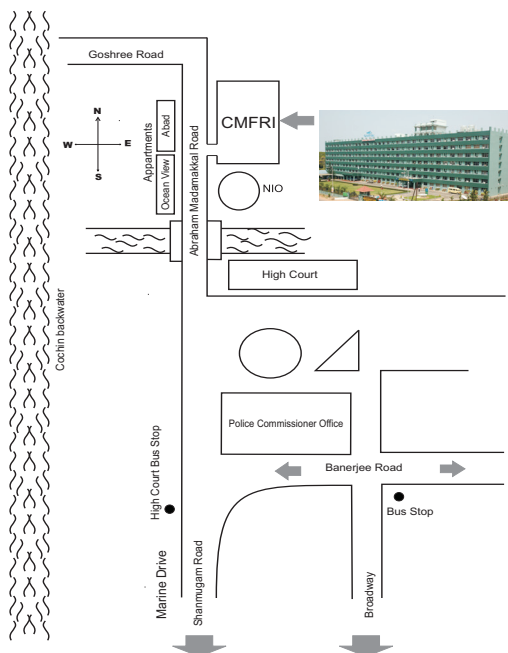

CMFRI - Profile

Mumbai, Karwar, Mangalore, Calicut, Vizhinjam, Tuticorin and Chennai and 15 Field Centres all along the coast. Headquarters coordinates the entire activities at Kochi.

Location of CMFRI at Kochi

The Headquarters of the Institute at Kochi (Ernakulam) is located 250 mtr away from Kerala High Court (behind) and is at a distance of about 4 km from Ernakulam Junction Railway Station, 2.5 km from Ernakulam Town Railway Station and 3 km from Kerala State Road Transport Corporation Bus stand and about 31 km away from Cochin International Airport.
