

CMFRI scientist gets Chidambaram Award

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@ Visakhapatnam

THE Central Marine Fisheries Research Institute (CMFRI)-Visakhapatnam Regional Centre head and principal scientist, Dr Joe Kizhakudan, will receive the prestigious K Chidambaram Memorial Award for 2024 on July 12 at the Commissionerate of Fisheries in Chennai.

The award is presented annually by the Chennai-based Fisheries Technocrats Forum in recognition of his notable contributions in the fields of fisheries, aquaculture, and allied sectors.

The award is named after the late K Chidambaram, who served in various capacities in the fisheries departments of Tamil Nadu, Gujarat, and the Union government. Dr Kizhakudan is one of four scientists and academicians selected for the 2024 award.

CMFRI Visakhapatnam Regional Centre head and Principal Scientist
Dr Joe Kizhakudan | G SATYANARAYANA